Mallard Manor Ministries Important Information

Reservation Policy: In order for your child's name to be placed on a particular date for any of our programs, we must have a 50% deposit due immediately and release form. For example: If we receive a call or email requesting a particular date, we will notify you ASAP whether or not it is available. If it is available, your child's name will NOT be placed on the list until a deposit is received in the office. If the date is already full by the time the deposit is received, then if any dates are still available, we will give you the next available date option. The final balance will be due 2 weeks prior to arrival. Our goal with our ministry programs is to maximize our impact on kids and we cannot do this when we turn away youth due to unknown cancellations. We believe that this will best serve our youth as we seek to keep offering this wonderful experience in the future.

Cancellation Policy: Mallard Manor Ministries requires parents to give a 2 week notice to cancel their event date. If a parent cancels less than 2 weeks prior to the event, all funds will be forfeited and the parent will have the option to find a replacement to go in their child's place instead. Otherwise, funds will be used by Mallard Manor to scholarship another child.

Rooming Policy: We often receive the request from parents for their child to room with a particular child attending our programs. We do strive to honor these requests, however, in some instances these requests may not be granted due to number of attendees that week, timeliness of reservation, and behavior. We believe that part of the program experience is for youth to branch out of their normal routine and form new friendships.
